Southwest Industrial Park, Ponoka, Alberta

This versatile commercial bay is an excellent opportunity for those seeking a practical and functional space with room to adapt to their needs. Measuring 24'™ x 40'™, it is fully insulated and heated, making it comfortable for year-round use. The bay is designed with 14'™ ceilings, a large 10'™ x 12'™ overhead door for easy access, and two additional man doors that provide convenience and flexibility. A south-facing window brings in natural light, creating a bright and inviting work environment. Inside, there is a handy 2-piece bathroom and additional space that can easily be set up as an office if required, making the bay suitable for a wide range of business or personal uses. Whether you're looking for secure storage, a dedicated workspace, or a place to operate a business, this property has the flexibility to accommodate it all. Adding to its appeal is the 20'™ x 35'™ chain-link fenced compound, ideal for outdoor storage or work needs. The compound is monitored with 24-hour security cameras, giving you peace of mind knowing your property is protected. With its thoughtful design and practical features this bay offers flexibility and functionality in a prime location.
